

House Resolution No. 497

Whereas, James B. Nutter, an esteemed resident of Kansas City, Missouri, will receive the Missouri Preservation 2002 Honor Award in the area of Residential Rehabilitation during a special awards ceremony to be held February 27, 2002, in the Rotunda of the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City; and

Whereas, the only statewide not-for-profit preservation organization in the Show-Me State, Missouri Preservation is a grassroots network of individuals, organizations, and preservationists dedicated to promoting historic preservation activities throughout Missouri and to serving and speaking for small towns and rural communities as well as urban centers; and

Whereas, each year, Missouri Preservation honors individuals, groups, and organizations that have contributed to the preservation of Missouri's rich and diverse collection of historic resources by giving awards to outstanding projects in commercial and residential rehabilitation, neighborhood revitalization, landscape protection, and archaeology; and

Whereas, the 2002 Missouri Preservation Awards Ceremony is being co-sponsored by Commerce Bank, the Convention and Visitors Bureau of Greater Kansas City, U.S. Bancorp Community Development Corporation, and Peckham, Guyton, Alberts and Viets, Incorporated; and

Whereas, the James B. Nutter Company has created a truly colorful neighborhood and demonstrated how even modest historic houses can continue to contribute to the life of the community through rehabilitation of the small homes on Central; and

Whereas, Mr. Nutter's combination of bright-colored paint and beautiful landscaping complete with new shrubs and flowerbeds gave the area such a distinctive appearance that it has come to be known as "Nutterville"; and

Whereas, a vibrant neighborhood of residences and commercial offices close to downtown Kansas City, Nutterville was honored with the Historic Kansas City Foundation's 2001 Preservation Award in the category of "Nuts and Bolts: Rehabilitation";

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to James Nutter at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for James B. Nutter.
